

Control-C Legal Disclaimer

Last updated: March 20, 2025

1. General Information Only

Materials provided through the Control-C platform, website, blog, or communications are for informational purposes and do not constitute legal, accounting, or professional advice. You should consult qualified advisors before acting on any guidance shared via the Service.

2. Service Availability

While Control-C strives for industry-leading uptime, the Service may become temporarily unavailable due to maintenance, upgrades, or circumstances beyond our reasonable control. We are not liable for delays, interruptions, or data loss resulting from telecom carriers, internet service providers, or force majeure events.

3. Third-Party Services and Links

The Service may reference or integrate with third-party websites, software, or services. Control-C does not control and is not responsible for the content, security, or availability of those third parties. Use of third-party services is governed by their own terms and policies.

4. Forward-Looking Statements

Any statements about future product features, enhancements, or roadmaps are forward-looking and subject to change. They should not be relied upon for purchasing decisions. Control-C has no obligation to deliver features referenced in roadmaps or public communications.

5. Warranty Disclaimer

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Control-C disclaims all warranties and representations, express or implied, including warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement. The Service is provided on an "as-is" and "as-available" basis.

6. Limitation of Liability

Control-C, its affiliates, officers, employees, and suppliers are not liable for indirect, incidental, consequential, special, exemplary, or punitive damages arising out of or in connection with the Service or these materials, even if advised of the possibility of such damages.

7. Updates

Control-C may update this Disclaimer periodically. The updated version will be posted with a revised effective date. Continued use of the Service after updates indicates acceptance.
